In Print | Freesurf Magazine

Hawai'i's Surf Magazine

Freesurf Magazine made its debut in 2002. Born on the North Shore of O'ahu - the surf Mecca of the world - Freesurf is dialed into the global surf community and is the authority on Hawai'i's surfers and beach culture. The only surf publication in the world produced on the North Shore, Freesurf delivers authentic surf coverage from the front lines and throughout the Hawaiian Islands and Southern California.

The monthly publication promotes a young, free and energetic lifestyle. The content is informative and captivating, while remaining family friendly. Freesurf Magazine prints 10,000 copies per month which are distributed free to 400-500 of locations in Hawai'i and Southern California.

The magazine also has prominent distribution at Surf Expo trade shows, and is on hand at select surf and beach events in Hawai'i throughout the year.

Circulation

- 10,000 printed copies / month
- Distributed free to 450+ locations throughout Hawai'i and Southern California

Demographics

- 72% male surfers*
- 28% female surfers*
- Targeted toward Gen X and Gen Y
